Constitutional Convention Reflection

Directions: Answer the questions below. We will be discussing these questions as a class. Be prepared to share your answers.

1. Write an interior monologue from your individual's perspective telling your feelings about the outcome of the Constitutional Convention.

2. In what ways was our class Constitutional Convention unrealistic? In what ways was it realistic?

3. Which social groups made alliances with each other? Do you think similar alliances were made in real life?

4. Why might it have been easier for wealthy social groups to unite and harder for the poorer groups to unite?

5. Which social groups had absolutely conflicting interests - where no compromise was possible?

6. In real life, how do you think the Constitution dealt with the issues we confronted in our class Convention?

7. Which social groups wanted a strong national government? Which wanted the states to have more power? Why?

8. Which social groups wanted the greatest amount of democracy - power to the people? Which wanted the least? Why?
